

Fleeting Moments

A performance to welcome people living with dementia and their companions

This family and dementia friendly, heart warming, joyous dance and music performance has evolved in consultation & collaboration with people living with dementia and their caregivers.

'Fleeting moments to lift our collective spirits.'

There will be three short sections of Indian, Chinese and Contemporary dance to live music, with two breaks and opportunities for sensitively led audience participation.

The Bluecoat, School Lane, Liverpool L1 3 BX

Friday 5th September 2014 (2pm - 3.30pm)

Tickets £7 / £5 *

Tickets and Information 0151 702 5324

the Bluecoat #

"Young and old, living with or without dementia, performers and spectators, together enjoying Fleeting Moments of fun"

 Project photography by Simon Richardson ***

 Concession tickets are available to those living in care, or with dementia*